The Formula and Stone Foundry have been idle, for some time, and caused things to look blue on Birmingham Flats. But the citizens of the town and vicinity will be highly gratified to learn that John Tridell, Esq., has made arrangements to start both, and will in a few days let on the seam. He intends to move both with energy.

He has the paterns and will cast the tou plate stoy—of various sizes—a stoye much needed by many in both town and rounty. His cooking stoye will, also, be fitted up at all times, and a botter thing for all purposes can't be found.
